2020 Annual Conference and Business Meeting

“New Brunswick's Young Farmers: A New Decade”

A new decade means new challenges and new successes for New Brunswick's young farmers. With big plans and even bigger dreams, today's generation of farmers never stop thinking of ways to improve themselves and their businesses. From the ground up, they push for innovations and better technology to provide a sustainable food system for New Brunswick and Canada as a whole. This year's New Brunswick Young Farmers Forum Conference will focus both professional and personal growth for NB's youth in agriculture.
